

ENTERPRISE.

Monday night the young people gave a surprise party to Lottie Keithby at the Orphanage. They went dressed in many fancy costumes and were masked. Miss Keithby was requested to guess who they were, and after guessing they took off their masks and spent a pleasant evening with games, music and recitations. Dainty refreshments were served.

Monday night in the parlor of the Epworth Inn Rev. Dr. Henderson, of Cincinnati, Ohio, gave a lecture on the lives of Grant and Lee.

Miss Clifford Hendri went to Orlando last Friday and returned Saturday.

Yesterday Mrs. Keithby's niece, Miss Lottie Keithby, left for New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace, of Chester, Pa., leave today to return home, also Rev. E. E. Burris, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. R. Durand and daughter Agnes, of Birmingham, Ala., are visiting her sister, Mrs. Jas. Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parker left Saturday for Miami, Key West and Havana, thence to their home in Massachusetts.

Mr. Robert Dickens, of Waycross, Ga., was in town Sunday, visiting relatives.

ST. FRANCIS HAS BIG FIRE

St. Francis, 22.—Early Sunday morning the magnificent home of John E. Harris was completely destroyed by fire.

The family was awakened by Miss Laura Francis Harris, who discovered the blaze in the two-story laundry house, which was then burning fiercely in the rear.

Members of the family immediately put fire extinguishers in use, but the fire could not be checked and soon spread rapidly. Seeing that there was no chance to save the home, articles of clothing, silverware, etc., were carried from the house, the smoke then being so thick that it was almost impossible to enter the house.

The family is composed of Mrs. L. H. Harris, Miss Harris, Misses Lydia Davis and Laura Francis Harris and Mr. Charles Francis Harris, his wife and son, Herdman Harris, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who were spending the winter with John E. Harris, owner of the property.

The loss was total, with some insurance. Mr. Harris and his brother are engaged in the patent medicine business under the name of B. A. Fahenstock Company, at Pittsburgh.

The express companies should not be regulated but abolished. It is a wheel within a wheel to doubly tax the people. The railroads transport the matter and we pay the express company to deliver it. The railroad could deliver it just as well and at a material saving to the people. It is a needed reform. Bronson Times-Democrat.

Five Years

of Heart Trouble Cured by Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy

"Before I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I had been suffering from heart trouble for over five years. I had pains in my left side, and under my shoulder blade, could not sleep on the left side, and was so short of breath the least exertion would bring on the most distressing palpitation. I had scarcely taken a half bottle of the Heart Remedy before I could see a marked change in my condition. When I had taken six bottles I was cured."

MRS. C. C. GORKEY,
Northfield, Va.

If there is fluttering or palpitation it is an indication of a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the heart. It is not necessarily diseased—just weak from over-work. The heart may be weak just the same as the eyes, stomach or other organs. You can make a weak heart strong by taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy. Get a bottle from your druggist, take it according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

The Orange City News

Miss C. A. Babcock

Editor

Dr. Baker, of Fulton, N. Y., arrived Saturday. He is at the Orange City Hotel. He is a friend of Dr. Curtis.

Mr. T. Soule and daughter, Mrs. J. H. Nettleton, and granddaughter Miss Mildred Soule, all of New Milford, Conn., arrived Saturday and are at the Orange City Hotel.

The literary society met with Miss E. Dickinson Wednesday afternoon. It was led by Mrs. Dr. Curtis, assisted by Mrs. Clark. The subject was Lincoln's birthday.

Mrs. Curtis arranged a fine program. There were readings by Mrs. Wm. Heebner, Mrs. Pratt gave an account of the memorial building to be erected on the old farm, Mrs. Dunlap read about President Lincoln asking to have the band play "Dixie" when he was told that General Lee had surrendered, after which Miss Hubbel on her mandolin and Mrs. Finney on her "guitar" played Dixie; Miss Hubbel gave a reading, Mrs. E. A. Hill gave one of her off-hand talks that are always so interesting. The music was fine by Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Hood. The meeting was closed by singing America with Mrs. Andrews at the piano.

Mr. Jesse Ryerson, of Freeport, N. Y., arrived Thursday, and is stopping at the Fenwick House. Mr. Ryerson spent last winter here and made a good many friends, who will be glad to see him and to know of his fine position. He is catcher in his Brooklyn, N. Y., ball club at a salary of three thousand dollars a year and all expenses paid. That's pretty good for a young man.

Capt. Wm. H. McCarthy, of New York City, a friend of Capt. Braisted, arrived Friday, and is a guest of the Fenwick House. Mrs. Will Newton, of Cortland, N. Y., who owns a winter home in Lake Helen, was shopping in Orange City Monday.

Mrs. Finney gave a card party Saturday evening to a few of her friends; five hundred was the game.

Dr. I. C. Curtis' friend, Mr. Arthur Gilbert, of Fulton, N. Y., who came with the doctor, left last week for his home, after a two weeks visit with the Dr.'s family. Mr. Gilbert is quite a noted man in Fulton, being the president of the Great Bear Springs Water Works Company, of Fulton, N. Y.; also a partner of Dr. I. C. Curtis in the ginseng business.

Mr. Albert Dickinson left last week for Dallas, Texas, to investigate timber lands.

Mr. H. C. Warren, of Wooster, Mass., is a recent guest at the Palmetto Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor paid a visit to Winter Park last week. They report a fine time and speak in high terms of the people and place.

On account of the inclemency of the weather last week the whist club did not meet.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Orr, of Palmetto Cottage, entertained a number of their friends at Whist and other games. Ice cream and cake were served (that coming from Mr. Walters' confectionery at DeLand). In the game of whist Mrs. John Hayes won ladies first prize, Miss Marcia Wood ladies second prize, Mr. Curtis gentlemen's first prize and Mr. Warren gentlemen's second prize. In the other games Marcia Wood won ladies first prize, Mrs. John Hays ladies second prize, Dr. I. C. Curtis gentlemen's first prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chamberlin, of Eau Claire, Wis., who are stopping at College Arms, in DeLand, were in town Saturday calling on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Finney.

The social given Monday evening at the Fenwick for the benefit of the

M. E. church parsonage was a decided success financially and otherwise. Mrs. Raymond and Mrs. Merritt deserve a good deal of credit for getting up a nice program and seeing it so well carried out. Mrs. Curtis, Miss Brown and Miss Vergill should have special mention for their recitations and reading and Mrs. Fred Finney for her music. Mr. J. P. Markham gave an original poem on the frozen North and Sunny South in contrast, which was fine. Miss Massey's music box was quite a help and well received. The net proceeds were $14.00.

Mrs. Finney entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chamberlin at dinner Tuesday. We hope Mr. Chamberlin will soon be much improved in health.

There is some property changing hands here of late. Mr. Curtis and Mr. Orr have bought what is known as the Rice grove, on Leavitt avenue; also what is known as the Burrell store on Graves avenue. Mr. True has sold the Bird house, on University avenue, to Mr. Perpoint, of Massachusetts, and six lots on French avenue to Mr. Adam Phippin, of St. Augustine.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, of Parkersburg, West Virginia, are visiting Madam Dade and her sons' family. Mr. Armstrong is a banker in Parkersburg, and a brother of Madam Dade.

The Episcopal church social and supper Tuesday evening was a grand success. They took in $42.

The euchre club met Tuesday evening, with eleven tables. Mrs. Parsons, friend of Mrs. Disbrow, won ladies prize, Mr. Hoyt gentlemen's prize.

Tickling in the Throat

"Just a little tickling in the throat!" Is that what troubles you? But it hangs on! Can't get rid of it! Home remedies don't take hold. You need something stronger—a regular medicine, a doctor's medicine. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral contains healing, quieting, and soothing properties of the highest order. Ask your doctor about this. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Constipation positively prevents good health. Then why allow it to continue? An active liver is a great preventive of disease. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. What does your doctor say?
